Secret History Post 3/7/67

It is time to declassify the correspondence concerning Vietnam from Jan. 1, 1943, through Oct. 1, 1945, between Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman and the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Office of Strategic Services, and between the Office of Strategic Services and the Provisional Committee of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam.

The people have a right to see it.

HAROLD TRESKUNOFF.
San Francisco.